REFERENCE ORDER

The question raised in this Writ Petition is whether the University should be prohibited from resorting to appointment through Employment Exchange. Reference is made to the Order passed by a Division Bench of this Court in Writ Appeal No.1451/06 as per which the University is prohibited from making any appointment from the list. It is contended by Shri P.C. Sasidharan, learned standing counsel appearing for the University that the interest of lakhs of students will be affected, if there is a stay of the appointments through the Employment Exchange, and all that the University is doing, is following the Circular of the Government, and it is a fair procedure which is adopted. I feel that this Writ Petition also should engage the attention of the Division Bench. Accordingly, this case is adjourned to be heard by the Division Bench. The interim order will continue till 26.3.2007.

Place the case before The Honourable the Acting Chief Justice for appropriate orders on posting.
